REV 1/20

COMPLAINT AGAINST A JUDGE

No _____

INSTRUCTIONS: Please read the accompanying informational brochure regarding the Commission's jurisdiction, function and procedures before you complete this form. Please print or type your information on this form. If you are asserting allegations about more than one judge, please complete a separate complaint for each judge.

Do not change or modify this form. Do not submit letters, statements, histories, or personal stories as a substitute for using this form as directed, but please provide such supporting documents with this form if they support your written allegations.

All materials that you file with the Commission will become part of the Commission's confidential files and will not be returned or copied to you. Therefore, please only provide copies of your supporting documents with your original, signed and verified complaint form. After you complete your complaint, it must be verified (notarized) before we can file it. Verification means you sign the complaint and swear before a notary public that the information in your complaint and the attachments you are providing are true and correct. The Commission cannot accept faxed or e-mailed complaints. Failure to follow the complaint instructions may cause your complaint to be returned to you. You will be advised in writing of the outcome of your complaint, subject to the limits of confidentiality.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: The Judicial Standards Commission has no authority to intervene in your court case or change a judge's decision or order. The Commission has no authority to remove the judge from your case. Commission staff cannot give you any legal advice or opinions. The Commission and its staff cannot respond to requests for information regarding your complaint or any proceeding before it.

The Commission only has jurisdiction over currently serving justices, judges, magistrates, and court-appointed commissioners, hearing officers, and special masters while acting in a judicial capacity. "Judge" as used on this form also means "court-appointed commissioners, hearing officers, and special masters while acting in a judicial capacity." The Commission does not have jurisdiction over special masters, special commissioners, hearing officers, federal judges, Workers' Compensation Administration judges, administrative law judges, or hearing officers of the Executive or Legislative Branches of New Mexico State Government, or over judicial candidates who are not already sitting judges.
