RESPONSE TO PETITIONER'S MOTION TO ENFORCE TERMS OF PARAGRAPH 15 OF
STIPULATION AGREEMENT AND CONSENT TO DISCIPLINE

The Respondent, Hon. Warren G. Walton, does not contest the imposition of the three-week suspension without pay, the imposition of which was deferred under the Stipulation Agreement and Consent to Discipline, page 6, paragraph 5.d.

The Respondent has completed the supervised probation, mentorship, and web-cast judicial training courses required by the Stipulation agreement and Consent to Discipline and this Court's Order entered December 18, 2017.

The Respondent does not contest the finding of the Judicial Standards Commission that he misrepresented the terms of the Stipulation Agreement and Consent to Discipline in a KRTN Radio interview on October 11, 2018.

The imposition of the three-week suspension without pay, which is the specific discipline sought by the Judicial Standards Commission, is appropriate under the circumstances.

WHEREFORE, Respondent prays that this Court impose the three-week suspension without pay which was previously deferred, without further discipline.

Respectfully submitted,
